Arts, Science and Commerce College, Kolhar

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROGRAMME:

1. Religious and Social event.
2. To aware the students about Indian culture.
3. Garba is a world famous dance form that beautifully reflects Indian culture.
4. One of the highest octane energetic dance.
5. Known for its sweeping action side to side, garba is accompanied by singing and playing musical instruments.

INTRODUCTION OF PROGRAMME:

On Monday morning 10:00am dated 11/10/2021, the students of Arts, Science and Commerce College Kolhar danced their hearts out to the tunes of Garba! 'Gujarat Ni Asmita', an initiative organised by the college's cultural committee. A live performance by music band GOONJ made it all the more special for the college goers, led by Principal, Chairman of cultural committee and his team. Talking about his experience, Aakash, a final year student, shared, "With blessings of the Almighty, I am humbled to have launched my own band. It was my dream to organise a Garba Celebration for our college students and the satisfaction we see on all these faces is something we all knew would be the result. Unlike every year, we saw a massive crowd of over 180 students, which was beyond our expectations."

About this event, I/C Principal Dr. Sopan Shingote, said, "In garba, performers circle around the image of Goddess Durga or a symbolic representation of her creative energy. We at ASC College provide our students with similar platform to showcase the immense creative potential they possess." Other than the high-energy music, students were all dressed in traditional Garba ensembles. The best dressed students and dancers were awarded with souvenirs. While some students focused solely on dancing, others who couldn't dance relished the refreshments. Aarti Navgire (T.Y.B.A) and Pallavi Kharde (T.Y.B.A), both Senior college students, went all out and danced continuously during the program. They said, "We both love dancing since our childhood, so there was no question of missing out on this 'Garba Celebration'. We have enjoyed like never before and we wish that there should be another 'Garba Night' soon"

"As this has been a students' initiative, we believe in giving back to society and to the community at large, thus all proceeds from this event will be donated towards a noble cause", concluded Krutika Sheth, one of the organisers.

Garba is a form of dance, as well as a religious and social event that originates in Gujarat, India. Garba is a community circle dance from the northwestern Indian state of Gujarat. The word "garba" is also used to refer to the event at which the garba is performed. The dance form originated in the villages of Gujarat, where it was (and continues to be) performed in communal gathering spaces in the center of the village with the entire community participating. As with many social events that happen in rural areas, garba also has religious significance.

Garba is performed during Navratri, the longest and largest dance festival in the world. Navratri, literally meaning "nine nights," is the Hindu festival dedicated to Durga—the feminine form of divinity and her nine forms, from the fierce sword-wielding Kaalratri to the smiling creator of the universe Kushmanda. This festival is observed in many ways, each unique to the region of India in which it is celebrated. In Gujarat, it is observed with nine nights of dancing as a form of veneration and worship. Starting in the evening, men and women dance late into the night in honor of Durga. Many people also fast or observe a special diet with restricted foods during these nine days and nights. And while garba is central to Navratri observances in Gujarat, it is not exclusively performed only during Navratri. Garba also is performed during social events such as weddings and parties.

Garba is layered with symbolism of the feminine divine and cyclical nature of life. Garba is a dance that honors, worships, and celebrates the feminine form of divinity. The word "garba" comes from the Sanskrit word garbha, meaning "womb." Traditionally, the dance is performed by women in a circle around a clay lantern with a light inside, called a garbha deep ("womb lamp"). The garbha deep has another symbolic interpretation. The vessel itself is a symbol of the body, within whom divinity (in the form of the Goddess or Devi) resides. Garba is danced around this symbol to honor the fact that all humans have the divine energy of Devi within them. Today, it is common to have images of Durga at the center of the circle in lieu of the garbha deep.

As garba is part of a religious practice, as with other Hindu rituals and worship, it is done barefoot (and on all kinds of surfaces). Going barefoot signifies respect for the earth upon which people walk. The foot is the body part that touches the earth – the sacred mother of all. The earth is imbued with generative powers and the foot is thought of as the conduit through which the vital energy of the earth travels through humans. Dancing barefoot is another way to connect with Devi.

Garba, also spelled garaba, singular garbo, type of Indian dance commonly performed at festivals and on other special occasions in the state of Gujarat, India. It is a joyful style of dance, based on a circular pattern and characterized by a sweeping action from side to side. Garba performances often include singing and a musical accompaniment traditionally provided by dhol (double-headed drum) and the similar but smaller dholak; hand clapping; and assorted metallic idiophones, such as cymbals. Historically, the shehnai (a double-reed instrument) guided the singers, but by the early 21st century that instrument had largely been replaced by a synthesizer or harmonium. Garba dances celebrate fertility, honour womanhood, and pay respect to any of an array of mother goddesses.

DETAILS OF THE PROGRAMME:

Cultural committee organized Garba festival in the college on Monday 11/10/2021. Inauguration function held at 10:00 am. For this program, the chairman of the college's cultural committee Dr. Chandrakant Rudraksh and all his committee members took out a notice for the students at the beginning of Navratri and gave an idea to all the students that Garba Festival will be organized in the college. For this, the in-charge principal of the college Dr. S. N. Shingote, Vice Principal Dr. P. S. Kanwade and all the fellow professors of the college were present. On Monday 11/10/2021 at exactly ten o'clock in the morning all the students of the college attended the event wearing traditional dress. The program was organized in the courtyard in front of the college. Initially, the head of geography department, Dr. S. N. Dalimbe presented the background of this program to all the students. The principal of the college wished the cultural committee for the successful organization of the program and appealed to conduct the program peacefully. 92 girls' students and 30 boys' students of Arts, Science and Commerce faculty participated in this programs and nearly 30 faculty members of the college participated in the programs.
