Details of the Programme:

'River Conservation and Cleanliness Project' was implemented on 24th February, 2024 in association with NSS of Arts, Science and Commerce College, Kolhar and National Service Scheme of Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune. For this programme, Prof. B. G. Bhangare, Sangamner, was the chief guest. He expressed his views about the importance of rivers. The existence of rivers is extremely important for human beings and the entire creation. Only fresh water can fulfill various basic needs of human beings. As the availability of such water is basically less, it is necessary to use it wisely. Just as water is essential for physical development, it is also essential for the enrichment of biodiversity. Despite this, humans are the biggest threat to the existence of these life-giving rivers. Climate change, rainfall irregularity, deforestation etc. also disturb the original nature of rivers, but these are also man-made causes. The second guest was Prof. Dr. S. P. Cholke BOS Member, SPPU. Pune. He said that today most of the rivers in India are getting polluted. Humans are responsible for this pollution. Therefore, in order to make the measures based on human participation successful, the students of National Service Scheme should participate in this cleanliness campaign. The presidential address was given by hon. Mr. Ashokseth Aasawa, Vice Chairman of Pravara Bank. The Principal, Dr. Haribhau Aher put forth the welcome note. The guests were introduced by Dr. Soman Shingote, Vice Principal. The vote of thanks was presented by Dr. Pravin Tupe, NSS PO. 200 students from various colleges participated in this workshop. The Principal, vice-principals, NSS POs, committee members, the teaching and non-teaching staff and students contributed in the successful execution of this workshop. Certificates were distributed to the participants at the end of the programme.

The volunteers of NSS cleaned the river bed in the area of 'Pravara River' Ghat for three hours early in the morning. By conserving and cleaning this river, the volunteers of the National Service Scheme set an example to the society. It is hoped that the society will keep the river bed clean in the future. Two hundred students of National Service Scheme participated in this cleanliness campaign. Students cleaned the riverbed spontaneously and in an atmosphere of enthusiasm. On the occasion of this program, the active principal of the college, Dr. Haribhau Aher, the Vice Principal of the college, Dr. Soman Shingote, National Service Scheme Program Officer, Dr. Pravin Tupe, Mrs. Sangita Dhimate, Dr. Uttam Yewle, Mrs. Archana Labade, Dr. Ashwini Aher, Dr. Manisha Pavane, Miss.
