Details of the Programme:

Mr. A. G. Darandale introduced the programme. Dr. N. A. Shinde, Assistant Professor A.C. S. College Satral was the chief guest for the programme. In speech he said that the important fact about the Indian constitution is that it was enacted at the time of independence, when India faced enormous challenges, including safeguarding the lives and welfare of millions of people who had been displaced by the partition. In the face of violence and uncertainty, the Constituent Assembly drafted a Constitution that reflects the nation's exceptional diversity, spanning languages, races, castes, and classes. Several other nations contributed encourage and inspired the Constituent Assembly during this challenging time.

He added that it was important lesson to be learned from our constitution-makers which is taking decisions with a lot of patience among people from diverse communities. He told how it was difficult to reach a consensus that supported all communities within our country.

Dr. S. R. Walunj, former Principal of A.C. S. College, Kolhar was chairperson for the programme. He said that the Constitution Day is also called the Sanvidhan Divas. It is celebrated in India to commemorate the adoption of the Constituent Assembly of India. On the 26th of November 1950, the Constitution of India was framed for all Indians. The Constituent Assembly drafted the Constitution of India. National Constitution Day is celebrated to spread awareness about the ideologies of Ambedkar, one of the pioneer speakers for equality. The Constitution of India declared India as a Sovereign Socialist Secular Democratic Republic. It declared justice for every Indian, liberty of thought and expression, equality and fraternity.

Mr. P. S. Auti gave the vote of thanks of participants. On this occasion Dr. V. A. Kharde gave Oath for protection of Indian Constitution to all participants. For this programme Teachers, NSS Students Volunteers and Non-Teaching staff of the college participated.
