Introduction of Programme:

The Department of NSS of Loknete Dr. Balasaheb Vikhe Patil Pravara Rural Education Society's Arts, Science and Commerce College, Kolhar has organized International Youth Day on 12th August 2021 at 09.30 am through online mode.

- NSS Coordinator, Dr. Tupe P. T. introduced the programme.
- Mr. Santosh Ubale was the Chief Guest for the programme.

Details of the Programme:

Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune, National Service Scheme, Arts, Science and Commerce College, Kolhar and Red Ribbon Club celebrated 12th August as International Youth Day in online mode. The slogan from the Maharashtra State AIDS Control Organization for this year's Youth Day was "Transforming food systems, youth innovation for human and planetary health" i.e. the engagement of youth in global affairs. The youth is very sensitive and awareness about HIV and other issues should be created among the young generation. In accord with this, Mr. Santosh Ubale, Head of IT CT, Primary Health Hospital, Loni, gave valuable guidance and spread AIDS awareness in online zoom meeting. If boys and girls do not think rationally, AIDS infection can increase the rate of accidents. In these lectures, the risk of HIV and occult diseases to youth, the role of youth in AIDS eradication, voluntary blood donation, why HIV testing before marriage is important and other topics were well discussed by Mr. Santosh Ubale. On this occasion, the principal of the college Dr. Sopanrao Shingote delivered presidential address. Introduction of the Program was given by National Service Scheme Program Officer, Dr. Praveen Tupe and Head, Department of Geography, Dr. Sopanrao Dalimbe proposed vote of thanks. Program Officer, Mrs. Sangita Dhimate with 7 professors of the college and 45 Girls Student and Boys students were present.

- Dr. Tupe P. T., NSS Coordinator introduced the programme.
- Dr. Jayashri Singar, Principal, ACS College, Satral was the Chief Guest of the programme.

Details of the Programme:

National Nutrition Month - September 2021

Arts, Science and Commerce College, Kolhar, organised National Nutrition Month- September 2021 program in collaboration with ten Anganwadis of Bhagwatipur under National Service Scheme and Integrated Child Development. The said program was conducted following the guidelines of Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune and the instructions given by the Government of Maharashtra. Sarpanch of Bhagwatipur, Mr. Dattatraya Rajbhoj, Deputy Sarpanch, Mr. Prakash Kharde and Gram Panchayat members were also present. Chief Guest, Dr. Jayashri Singar guided the audience on the topic of 'Women's Nutrition and Health'. In her lecture, she elaborated on the importance of fruits, leafy vegetables and dry-fruits. She advised to eat pulses and vegetable platters of different flavours for breakfast. Palak is rich in fiber, vitamins and minerals that improve blood and eye health. The iron folic acid in flax seeds improves bone health. It improves health along with taste. Capsicum is very effective in boosting immunity and vitamin C is found in citrus fruits in large amounts like oranges, lemons, guava and most importantly amla. Papaya is also high in vitamin C and fiber so it is healthy to consume. Also, dry fruits like almonds, cashews, pistachios, raisins, figs, apricots, etc. are essential for our health. Along with that, the diet of pregnant women and lactating mothers should include milk, curd, buttermilk, eggs and butter. Consuming one spoon of Gauran ghee daily is essential for women of all ages.

Chief guest was College Principal, Dr. Sopanrao Shingote who expressed his views. He requested women to take care of their own health along with their families. He advised women to cook nutritious food as well as to consume it. He explained that since men and women are two wheels of the same car, their diet and exercise should be appropriate and complementary. On this occasion, an exhibition of nutritious food was prepared by ten Anganwadis in Bhagwatipur and was artistically presented. In this, various types of nutritious recipes included parathas made of fenugreek leaves, pulses, idli, dosa, uttappa, dhokla made from rice and udit dal, thalipeeth, dhirde, etc. Also, a beautiful and attractive rangoli was drawn of broken pulses, leafy vegetables, fruits and tubers. On this occasion, medicinal plants were distributed under National Service Scheme in College of Arts and Commerce, Kolhar. Medicinal plant Gulvel prepared in Botany department of the college was distributed to Hon'ble Sarpanch, Upasarpanch, Gram Panchayat members and Talathi, Agriculture Officer, Health Officer. Also, medicinal plants like tulsi, ginger, aloe vera, tamarind, beherda, mint etc. were distributed to pregnant women and lactating mothers. Dr. Pravin Tupe, National Service Scheme Program Officer, Coordinating Officer, Mrs. Sangeeta Dhimate, Mr. Uttam Yewle, Ms. Ashwini Aher, Ms. Manisha Kakade, Mr. Sharad Dighe and Mr. Sagar Gholap helped to make this program a grand success. Along with this, ten Anganwadi workers in Bhagwatipur and their helpers also extended support. Mrs. Sangita Dhimate, program officer of National Service Scheme, introduced the guests and compered for these programs. Mrs. Rekha Rajbhoj, anganwadi worker, introduced the guests. At the end Dr. Pravin Tupe gave vote of thanks. 12 professors and Anganwadi workers were present on this occasion.

Details of the Programme: World AIDS Day 1 December, 2021

Under National Service Scheme and Red Ribbon Club, on 1st December, World AIDS Day was organized. On this occasion, the counselor of Pravara Rural Hospital, Loni Hon. Mr. Santosh Ubale was the chief guest. He gave valuable information about AIDS awareness, He added that this day is celebrated on 1st December every year to create awareness among people about the terrible disease like AIDS and its transmission. The United Nations has declared this day to raise awareness about the deadly disease and to mourn those who died due to this disease. Government and health officials, non-governmental organizations and individuals around the world celebrate this day educating on AIDS prevention and control.

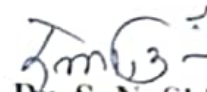

Main causes of HIV-AIDS is through needle, injection if it is contaminated with infected blood. Symptoms of AIDS are fever for several weeks, sudden weight loss, stomach ache, loss of appetite, persistent diarrhoea, sweating while sleeping, etc. Misconceptions about AIDS-are HIV / AIDS is a contagious disease. So eating, playing, touching, wearing clothes, etc. of infected person cannot result in AIDS. Using same toilet does not lead to the infection of this terrible disease. The program was presided over by principal, Dr. Sopanrao Shingote. On this occasion, National Service Scheme Program Officer Dr. Pravin Tupe, Mrs. Jayashree Singar Principal (Satral College), volunteers and faculty members of the college were present.
