Report of Drawing Competition

On the occasion of Annual Cultural Function, Women Empowerment Cell of Pravara Rural Education Society's Arts, Science & Commerce College, Kolhar organized a Drawing competition for the UG and PG students on Tuesday, 29/01/2019 in Zoology Department. These competitions were inaugurated and examined by the Principal Dr. Archana Vikhe. 6 girl students & 4 boy students participated in Drawing Competition.

While addressing to the participants, Principal Dr. Archana Vikhe quoted the importance of Drawing Competition. Drawing competition is like any other competition in which the participant has to excel to become a winner. However, it is an art or expression of what goes in mind and heart. It opens up the opportunity to express you with the help of colors, paint brushes, and a sheet of white paper.

Chairman of Women Empowerment cell Miss. Gaikwad R.J has chaired the function. In her presidential address, she conveyed the importance of the creative work done by the students. Competitions are important to motivate young artists and help them to develop creative skills by exposing them to the contemporary talent in the field. By observing the work of peers, students have the opportunity to analyze and evaluate their techniques. Teaching faculties inspired the participants by putting their positive comments on the Drawing Competition.

Report of Food Recipe Competition

On the occasion of Annual Cultural Function, Women Empowerment Cell of Pravara Rural Education Society's Arts, Science & Commerce College, Kolhar organized a food recipe competition for the UG and PG students on 29/01/2019 in Botany Department. 10 girl students & 10 boy students participated in food recipe competition.

These competitions were inaugurated and examined by the HOD of Hindi Department, Dr. P. T. Tupe. While addressing the participants, Dr. Tupe quoted that the objective of food recipe competition is to make the people aware about the unique nutritional value of indigenous crops and their importance in maintaining ecological diversity. The aim is also to equip families with the desire to eat more healthy food. The competitions are helpful in breaking down barriers for people who think they cannot afford to eat healthy and changing perceptions about what it takes to cook a healthy meal and access healthy food.

Principal Dr. Archana Vikhe has chaired the function. In her presidential address, she conveyed the importance of the ingenious work done by the students. More than 80 students have visited and viewed the presented food recipes. Chairman of Women Empowerment Cell, Mrs. R. J. Gaikwad presented vote of thanks. All the members of Women Empowerment Cell took lot of efforts to organize this function.

This competition was inaugurated and examined by the Vice Principal, Dr. B. N. Nawale. 20 girl students & 5 boy students participated in handcraft competition.

While addressing to the participants, Vice Principal, Dr. B. N. Nawale quoted the importance of handcraft. It is one of many crafts which are being revived by those who love working with their hands. It includes surface embroidery, quilting, and needlework which are bump in popularity. A versatile form of fiber art can be used to make everything from wall hangings and plant hangers to jewelry, purses, and even clothing items. Using simple materials like cotton twine, jute, hemp, or yarn. Embellishments like glass or wooden beads, as well as dyed threads, were used for creative possibilities.

Principal, Dr. Archana Vikhe has chaired the function. In her presidential address, she conveyed the importance of the creative work done by the students. Teaching faculties have inspired the participants by putting their positive comments on the handcrafts. More than 90 students have visited and viewed the presented handcrafts.
